

Hello all,

My name is Ruchita Raghunandan, sophomore at DU, double major in Finance and Business Analytics. I am the Events Chair for the Finance Club this year.

In collaboration with [REDACTED], the Finance Club is hosting "[REDACTED]" again this year! It was a huge success for both the clubs last year, with more than 100 attendees, equal representation across all majors.

Although we have many challenges in the online environment, we are working very hard towards making this event a success once more! And we would really appreciate your help with this just like last time! The attendance of students will soar, and the event will be of great value to them.

1. We request you to make an announcement in your classes about this.

You can announce it in class (online zoom/in-person) and/or post (copy/paste from details below) an announcement in the canvas container of the class.

2. We thought it would be great if you could also offer extra credit to students who register and attend this event.

We can let you know who attended. This is just a suggestion, no obligations if this adds problems for you.

Please tell your students that this event is not just about women, it also has to do with the profession. The panelists all bring in amazing insights for students, helpful for each Finance major!

Here are the Event Details you can paste in announcements -
